The Book of Job has been dramatized and is to be put on the stage. Cheer up.

A Chicago poet has written a eulogy on the bath, thus conveying the impression that he has taken one.

It is a surprise to the public that a man of August Belmont's financial standing has not had appendicitis long

It has been discovered that the Haytians are fond of hables; in fact, con ; sider them delicious when properly cooked.

Newport society belles went to a dance dressed as farmers' daughters. They must have suffered terribly from the heat.

sian bear may lie down together, it is a safe guess that each will keep one Thicker come the throbs as Art gets under way for its brief, heerie, steamheated season. Let us warm our hands at Art.

Bishop Huntington says he never saw an angel with whiskers. And yet the bearded lady is undoubtedly somebody's angel.

Queen Wilhelmina says that the exjust like the rest of us.

Two million dollars' worth of tele graph lines in Newfoundland will make the island seem a good deal smaller than it seems to-day.

We do hope that the President's gift of a gold-plated sewing machine to the empress of Japan won't make the em press dowager of China jentous: - 24

Her relatives claim that a woman who did not leave her $5,000,000 to them was insane. Of course she was; she left it to the man she loved.

Coats are to be long, and are to fit everybody but the long slim Jims.

Breast pockets on our evening collars on the gallus dinner cont? Nay, crossed swords of her guards. nay, not until black socks give place

"The Igorrote," remarks the Port land Oregonian, "is visible to the of Courtland. But you can never comnaked eye." He is, dear boy. Also, if memory serves us, he is naked to the committed me to you as a little child to make up for lost time to have to waste ten or fifteen minutes listening to some good advice about the foolish

A dispatch from Wall street says it is feared that money may before long be too plentiful. This endoubtedly is the worst case of trouble-borrowing that has ever been reported.

"Eternal Feminine" writes to say that she thinks it but just that "angels here below should be represen tative of the masculine gender, as matters little!" there will be few, if any, of that sex

There was a time when China tore up the railways built by foreigners and threw the rails into the sea. Now it is buying their railways. The heathen Chinee is losing some of his

Once there was a man who suspect ed his wife of flirtation, but before he blazoned his woes to the world he discovered that she was merely trying to buy him a birthday present without his finding it out.

Robert Goelet, the well-known New port society man, has filed his application for admittance to the bar of Rhode Island. If he gets all the so clety cases he will have a large and remunerative practice.

"Who is the formost man in the world?" asks an esteemed contemporary. The foremost man in the newspaper world, as any fair minded person will concede, is the man with the longest nose for news.

The fcountry's postoffice business for the year ending June 30, last, shows an increase of $10,000,000, over the preceding year. And yet the average man probably did not notice any increase in his correspondence.

Gay old King Lee off sends word to our President that the Roosevelt portrait adorns a bureau in the royal dressing room. There's a large and fascinating variety of portraits on that reyal bureau, according to persistent gossip.

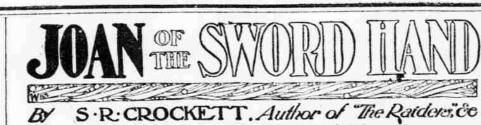

All hands howled in chorus at the critics of Borglum, sculptor of angels. The Providence Journal demands to know whether the critics ever saw an angel thus manifesting an intention to interview somebody-if not the angel, perhaps the critic,

The average American family now contains only two and three-fifths children. We'll feel a lot more comfortable now if we can get rid of 'that fractional child -- Cleveland Leader. Why not, instead of getting rid of the poor thing, add the other twofifths?

Chicago has a street car conducto who is the heir to a title and a for tune in England. The girls will no doubt join in the hope that he may he able to secure the divorce for which he has applied.

become the wife of a millionaire who fell in love with her at first sight and gave her a check for $100,000 as a wedding present. It is to be hoped that she had strength of character enough not to eat more than $11 worth of chocolates at the first sitting.

The New Jersey homeopaths have adopted a scale of prices that include $500 for operation on the stomach and $150 for taking off a leg. It's enough

CHAPTER XXIII.

Prince Wasp Stings. Margaret did not answer her torcears, sought his in a last kiss. The know, four several limbs. By a strange officer of the Prince's guard touched coincidence I have a wild horse for her on the shoulder. She shook him haughtily off, and then, having com- be severally attached, my Cossacks oleted her farewells, she loosened her hands and went slowly backward towards the further end of the hall with her eyes still upon the man she

"So," cried Prince Louis, in the curiously uneven voice of a coward lashing himself into a fury, "you have played out your treachery upon a she should fall. reigning Prince of Courtland. You While the British lion and the Rus. have you to say ere I order you to be flung out from the battlements of the western tower?" "Gentlemen and Princes," Maurice von Lynar answered, "that which I have done I have done for the sake of my mistress, the Lady Joan, and I am not afraid. Prince Louis, it was her will and intent never to come to Courtland as your wife. She would not have been taken alive. It was therefore the duty of her servants to preserve her life, and I offered myself penses of Holland are increasing much in her stead. My life was hers alfaster than the income. Holiand is ready, for she had preserved it. She had given. It was hers to take, With the chief captains of Kernsberg I plotted that she should be seized and carried to a place of refuge wherein no foe could ever find her. There she abides with chosen men to guard her. I took her place and was delivered up that Kernsberg might be cleared of its enemies. Gladly I came that I might pay a little of my debt to my sevran lady and liege mistress, Joan,

Duchess of Kernsberg and Hohen-"Nobly perorated!" cried Prince Ivan, clapping his hands. "Right sonorously ended. But, listen, Sir Mummer, in all this there is no word of the Princess Margaret. How comes it close, say the tailors, whose decrees that you loudly proclaim having given are indisputable. That's all right for yourself a noble sacrifice for one fair lady, when at the same time you are secretly married to another? Are you The attempt to naturalize Hawaiian a deliverer of ladies by wholesale? poi in this country is one of doubtful Speak to this point. Let us have anresult. Who would care for pol when other noble period-its subject my affihe can have bot mince pie for break anced bride. Already we have heard of your high devotion to Prince Louis' wife. Well-next!" But it was the Princess who spoke

"That I will answer. I am a woman weak in your hands, princes both. Shall this springals seat himself in You have set the grasp of rude menat-arms upon the wrists of a Princess pel her soul. Brother Louis, my father -have I not been a loving and faithful sister to you? And till this Muscovite came between were you not good to me? Wherefore have you changed? Why has he made you cruel to your little Margaret?" Prince Louis turned towards his sister, moving his hands uncertainly and even deprecatingly. Ivan moved quickly to his side and whispered something, which rekindled the light of anger in the weakling's "You are no sister of mine," he said; "you have disgraced your family and yourself. Whether it be true or not that you are married to this man "It is true; I do not lie!" said Margaret, recovering herself.

"It is the worse, then, and he shall suffer for it. At least I can hide-I cannot prevent your shame!"

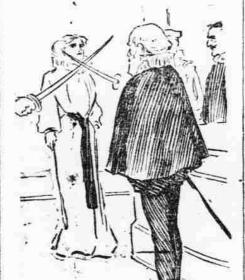

"I will never give him up: nothing on earth shall part our love." Prince Ivan smiled sweetly, turning to where she stood at the end of the "Sweet Princess," he said, "divorce is, I understand, contrary to your holy Roman faith. But in my land we have discovered a readier way than any papal bull. Be good enough to observe this"—he held a dagger in his hand, "It is a little blade of steel, but a span long, and narrow as one of your dainty fingers, yet it will divorce the best married pair in the world." "But neither dagger nor the hate of enemies can sever love," Margaret answered proudly. "You may slay my husband, but he is mine still.

cannot twain our souls." The Prince shrugged his shoulder and opened his palms deprecatingly. "Madam," he said, "I shall be satisfied with twaining your bodies. In holy Russia we are plain men. We have a saying, 'No one hath ever seen soul. Let the body content you!'

When this gentleman is-what I shall make him, he is welcome to any com-

And the Prince of Muscovy laughed loud and long. But Prince Louis did their necks and looking over each not laugh. His eyes giared upon the other's shoulders. prisoner like those of a wild beast aught in a corner when it wishes to last. I swear it!" he cried. "He hath and knave, sewant and master, took mocked me, and I will slay him with their way. And hey had scarce passed my hand."

Sparhawle stood so still and quiet that Prince Louis hesitated. Ivan laid a soft hand upon his wrist and as gently drew the dagger out of his grasp. "Nay, my Prince, he will give him covite serfs, and that or the day be contain passing than that. So no done. Karl Wendelin, think shame—thou that art my sister's son-to be aiding and abetting such heathen eruelty to a Christian man, all that wear a jerkin purfled with gold." Thus angrily ran the tau and jeer, ill the Courtland guard, mostly young ellows with relatives and sweethearts. tic with rage and shame.

I ble a knight-errant must die no common death. What say you to the Peter Altmaar, what are they doing? staurice's neck, and her lips, salt with this woman-mummer, hath, as now we reach down black puddings from the rafters? At this all eyes turned to Peter, a a weak mouth and the gift of words.

"They are bringing up four horses from the Muscovite camp. The folk their heels," began Peter Altmaar, looking under his hand over the people's heads. "Half a score of men are plunge! They will never stand still a > stand like a priest's platform in Lent, when he tells us our sins outside the "The Princes are sitting their horses" watching. Bravo, that was well done. We came near to seeing the color of the Muscovite brains that time. One of the wild horses spread his hoofs on either side of Prince Ivan's head!" "God send him a better aim next

good Peter!"
(To be continued.)

THE STAR AND THE CYNIC. Example of Pessimism Seems About 3 the Limit.

Gen. Thomas H, Hubbard was talk-ig in New York about the advertiseing in New York about the advertise-ment for an optimistic surgeon that Lieut. Peary inserted in the papers before the departure of his exped

Cen. Hubbard subscribed $20,000 to he expedition. Therefore it is easy to see that he has a profound interest "Peary in his advertisement was right," he said. "It is needful that the expedition's physician be a cheery optimist as that he be a practical surgen. Optimism and good spirits go far in a voyage like this one. Per haps it is because there has not been Courtland time to reply to his sister's enough optimism and good cheer among men in the past that the north nole has not yet been found. . . . "When it is found, an optimist, comnanding a band of optimists, will find and there will be no such cynic in that resolute and successful crew reserved for the greatest and most dis as the one who sailed with Peary on "He was indeed a cynic. Let me

> "'Isn't that a beautiful star? "The cynic, with a grunt, replied: " Did you ever see an uguly one?"

New Danger to the Heron. Surgeons have long been seeking for some material for satures and ligatures which should be more satisfacwas smiling his inscrutable Oriental tory than those at present in use, which include catgut, kangaroo ten-"Let the Princess pass," he cried. | don, silk worm gut, hosse hair and sil-The guards dropped their swords to ver wire. Dr. Charles F. Kieffer has recently used and suggests in a medical journal that the tendons of the cranes and heron make excellent, suforward with eager appeal on her face. cranes and heron make excellent su-She dropped on her knees before the tures and ligatures and seem to possess some advantages over the materials at present in use. Should these suggestions be gener ally approved by physicians, birds of the heron group are threatened with a cles of heron have already so greatly "That, above all things, I cannot all decreased in numbers that they are tinction, and all have become muchless abundant . than . they . formerly "Margaret," said the Sparhawk, "it | were, The herons are not prolific birds, s useless to plead. Do not abase your. | the number of eggs in the nests being self in the presence of our enemy. You | small. The danger which threatens cannot touch a man's heart when his this group is thus a very real one.—breast covers a stone. Bid me good-Forest and Stream.

Dr. Henry Thayer's Dilemma. The following story, it is safe to affirm, has never been seen in print: The late Dr. Henry Thayer, the founder of Thayer's laboratory in Cambridge, was on his way to his office one winter morning on the early, six- into the true nature of the malady. ties when the sidewalks were a glare of, ice., While going down Main street ie met a lady coming in the opposite direction. The lady was a stranger to him, although he was not unknown

In trying to avoid each other on the other, with their pedal extremities considerably entangled. While the polite doctor was debating in his mind what was the propes thing to say or do under the trying circumstances, the problem was solved by the quick-wited lady, who quietly remarked: "Doctor, if you will be good enough to rise and pick out your legs, I will take what remains. -- Boston Herald.

Judge Wilson's Smeech at Nahant.

in an address at the town hall, began this way: "I don't want to make any elaborate oy in a backwoods town in Maine they were holding a centennial celebration. The most prominent citizen was going to make a speech. He studied one for weeks beforehand, and learned it all by heart, word for word. Then when the day came he got up on the platform and began: A hundred years ago this town was a howling with whom the Princess Margaret was | wilderness. At this point he forgot the rest, but bravely continued: 'As I said before, 100 years ago this town was a howling wilderness and-er-1 wish to heavens it was now.". Thought It Was a Cocktail. Dinner was a little late. A guest asked the hostess to play something, and, seating herself at the piane, the good woman executed a hopin nocturne with precision. After she had finished there was still an interval of waiting to be bridged. In the grim silence she turned to an old gendeman on her right and said:

"Would you like a sonata before inner?" dinner?" He gave a start of surprise and pleasure. "Why, yes, thanks," he said. had a couple on my way here; but I think I could stand another."

An Apt Quotation. . "That flat he owns is so old-fashioned that he capit rent it or make any money out of at." "Ah! the flat, male and unprofite

REVOLUTION BREAKS OUT - OVER ENTIRE RUSSIAN EMPIRE

rith the single exception of Gen. Treas not only gone to pieces, but great exceptions, have resigned, and the czar's predicament can easily be imolas at the July conference was to place all the necessary German mili effect that the czar will, as a last resituation of appalling complications and dangers.

A St. Petersburg dispatch to the Friday morning, after which there Observer says it is unfored that Admiral Birileff, minister of marine, and students and the police. The police time! Tell on, Beter! Aye, go on, Admiral Chuknine have been killed by fired on the crowd, killing one and

> Count Witte with full powers. A news agency dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the ministers Moghileff, says that strikers threw were suddenly summoned to Peterhor three bombs at the chief- of police Saturday evening And will remain > Massacres Reported at Moscow. Paris: A message from St. Petersurg says it is reported that massacres similar to those which occurred at Baku recently have taken place at encounters between the rioters and Moscow.

TOWN INSTERROR.

Building in Ridgeville, Ind. Ridgeville, Ind.: Seven burglars

glars met the town watchman and

After the second explosion, that charged with attempting jury-fixing wrecked the safe and bank building, in the Hyatt case, made application the town was practically at the mercy | for a continuance to the February of the desperadoes, who walked the term, which was granted. streets shooting at everything in sight and apparently taking their time in action was solely for the purpose of eaving the scene of their crime. | bringing the Hyatt case to trial first,

Datto, Ali Killed.

Mule Epidemic Closes Mines. Cameron mine, these collieries will department a good chance to examine Saves Woman From Hanging. Harrisburg, Pa.: Governor Penny packer commuted to life Imprison-

Twentieth Child Is Born, Terre Haute, Ind.: Mrs. Clara Krauss, at Coal City, has given birth to her twentieth child. None of them have been twins. She has been mar-

TRAIN HOUR LATE.

m., one hour behind schedule time. Chicago.

melon, he was seized with epilepsy. and has since abstained from food Negro Shoots at Rival.

lodged in jail here.

MISSOURI DOINGS

FRANCIS AS SPECIAL ENVOY.

President Appoints Commissioner to Visit Foreign Capitals. Washington: Announcement was made at the State Department Friday that Mr. D. R. Francis, president of the military hospital at Jefferson Barthe Louistana Purchase Exposition Company, has been named by Presiin the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The Secretary of State, Mr. Root, has notified Mr. Francis to this effect. Mr. Francis will have the title of Special Commissioner, and his function will involve a complete tour of the world, during which he will visit numberless eminent chiefs of state.

Complete plans for the trip and the mission are not yet formulated. A blank form of a letter, expressing the thanks of the Government, has been drawn up at the State Department. exporters from Hability in the case of Copies of this letter, each duly cer. ther was rescued from the burning vestified by the President of the United | sel by occupants of another launch. oreign importers and ship owners States, will be personally presented Thee and Feufer disappeared beneath to the foreign rulers by Mr. Francis. The mission is unique. After the bodies has been found. Chicago Exposition the thanks of this Government were extended from Washington through the regular diplomatic channels. No special significance attached to the act, it being a purely perfunctory business.

sounding eighty-six, including seven Bomb Wounds Police Chief and Escort St. Petersburg: . A dispatch from ing Suit from St. Louis. . Gomel, capital of the government of while he was driving in the street His carriage was wrecked and the chief and several Cossacks compos censes of saloon-keepers. . ing his escort were wounded. Loan Negotiation Postponed. of State ws. Seebold, which was ar-St. Petersburg: In view of the in gued before the court in banc today ternal condition of the country, Fi nance Minister Kokovtseff has annonnced that the negotiations of the Russian loan have been postponed. Eight Killed, Forty Wounded. Reval. Russia: Eight persons were killed and forty wounded during the his liceese. police and troops Friday night. The contention of General Crow is

PAPERS FILED IN HYATT CASE

Defense Obtain Continuances. Warrensburg, Mo.; The applica was filed by Prosecuting Attorney

The defense in the cases of J. I .Corbin and William Mullens, each The prosecution alleges that this

While three of the robbers were and for this reason, coupled with the rying to blow open the safe, four fact that Dr. John Fulkerson, an imstood on guard and opened fire on portant witness for the State, is out the cashier, R. C. Banson, Cass M. of the State, and cannot be located Sumption, president of the bank, and at this time, a continuance was taken

Boy Confesses to Murder. Chanute, Kas.: Lum L. Railey, the 16-year-old boy who murdered Henry Tomlinson, a 70-year-old farmer, on Wednesday night, made a full con fession Saturday. Railey says he had ro motive to kill the old man, but while holding a shotgun an insane impulse led to fire, the shot blowing off the top of Tomlinson's head.

Mexico Cathedral in Ruins. El Paso, Tex.: The dome on the great cathedral in Monterey, Mexico. fell Saturday, crushing the church into a heap. The edifice was one of Shamokin, Pat: On account of a the landmarks of Mexico. It was built in 1792. As far as learned there > Automobile Plant Burned. Connersville, Ind.: The plant of the Central Manufacturing Company burned Saturday with a loss of $100, inn. The company manufactured bodies for automobiles and buggles. A > large amount of partly finished ma-Feeds Son to Knives. Swormsville, N. Y.: August Thurman unknowingly fed his 3-year-old son to a corn cutter. The child's right leg was cut off and his left badly injured. He had been playing

The two rate conventions at Chiried twenty-five years, and is 41 years cago adjourn after adopting each a

about the machine and hid in the

BLOW BANK SAFE.

Niagara Falls, N. Y.. The private bank of Harvey Hoag, of Barker, Nagara County, was robbed early Wednes After changing engines and switch and blew open the safe of the bank. ng to the tracks of the Northwestern | They got away with about $3,000 in Railroad, the train left at 10:10 a. m. gold after an exchange of shots with It was stated that no attempt will be citizens. Hoag later recovered $2,800 made at fast running from here to is bills which he found in a hat lying in front of the bank.

SHORTAGE OF $1,500,000.

Larger Than He Thought, Pittsburg, Pa.: Fred Gwynner his fast has affected his mind, and an National Bank, when asked Monday

"It will be very large; much larger to California for his health, and and in fact than we first supposed. From nounced his intention of testing the what I know now it will reach $1,500,fast cure for stomach affection. Re- 000. None of the directors or officers cently, while eating a piece of water- not even myself, had any idea that it would reach such an enormous sum as that.

> AEROPLANE'S RECORD FLIGHT. Twenty Minutes Above River. New York: In sight of thousands

fire on the man, shot her by accident. Israel Ludlow's latest aeroplane, with He shot at Jones a second time and | Charles B. Hamilton aboard, rose 800 again missed him, the bullet wounding feet and sailed over the water for a bystander. Burns was arrested and twenty minutes. At the expiration of tals time the tug holding it in posi-Isham Randolph, member Board of tion at the end of a rope was forced Consulting Engineers, says Panama to stop in order to avoid a collision

TWO MEN DROWN.

Gasoline Launch · Explodes - Father and Son Rescued. St. Louis: Edward Duffy and his son, Edward Duffy, Jr. are lying in racks suffering from severe cuts and burns, and Frederick Thee and Henry dent Roosevelt to convey the thanks Feufer are supposed to be drowned, the of the United States Government to result of an explosion Sunday evening the various nations that participated on board the gasoline launch "Myrtle," the property of the Twin Hollow Hunting and Fishing Chab, of which the elder Duffy is president, and William Hartley, 4343 Michigan-avenue, is secretary. The two Duffys are candy makers, employed by the St. Louis Candy Co. Thee was an engineer and Feufer a tinner. The explosion was due to gasoline escaping from a leak in a pipe. The launch was burned to the water's edge. Young Duffy swam to the Missouri shore, near the barracks, and his fathe water and no trace of them or their

Seeks to Force Kansas City to Recognize State Grain Weighmasters. Jefferson City, Mo. Attorney Gen-eral Herbert S. Hadley filed in the Surreme Court a mandamus suit against the Kansas City Board of Supreme Court Hears Sunday Clos Frade to compel the board to recognize the State Grain Weighmasters and in-

> For some time the Kansas City Board of Trade has refused to submit to state weighing and inspection of grain, having appointed officers of its own for that purpose,

> The suit is filed by the attorney general on behalf of the State Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commission ers to compel the Beard of Trade to recognize and obey the state laws in > this regard. While it is not known what defense

STARTS HOME WITH SERVEN.

With Prisoner . . .. St. Louis: Emil Marie Servens who captured several days ago while creating a disturbance on the German cruisis on the way to St. Louis. He left charge of Sergeant McFarland. Dooof Thursday afternoon in the Iron Seryen, was captured three weeks ago case went to trial, his attorneys en-

Tries to Kill Self and Child. Brockfield, Mo .: The State Board tub of water and put out the flames, of Agriculture convened in Brookfield but not until she and the baby had Thursday to hold a two days' insti- been terribly burned. She is uncontute for the farmers of Linn and sur scious, but the doctors say this is due rounding counties. The meeting is as much to starvation as to the burns. The husband is a husky fellow and has The lectures were listened to with steady work. The police did not arrest much interest by a large audience. him, but ordered him to collect his

Has Twenty-three . Children. lived in Kansas City more than twenty

New York Life representatives tell the marriages were based on the Kansas City underwriters that Presi-a separate station, which will be built feft Crane because he was wasting her on each side of the tracks at Jeffer fortune. Crane's defense was insanity son-street, the Wabash on the south and while he has not acted in a rational manner since going to jail, the prosecution charged that the insanity was feigned. The verdict means the infliction of the death penalty. Drowned Doctor's Body Found Linn, Mo.: The body of pr. Frank of Charles M. Meredith was terribly Lane, who was drowned in Loose burned here Thursday as the result Creek on the night of October 17, was with kerosene, when the force of the posed to have entered the stream. The explosion which followed blew open body of his son, who was with him, has Exhume Body at Eldon, Mo. The body of Frand Harbelow the ford where he is sup-

Survey of Line Progresses. Marshall, Mo. The surveying par-Club held its annual meeting last ty of the Central Missouri Electric Thursday night. The following off. Rallway has finished its work between cers were elected: , "Bill" Sisk, pres. this city and Miami, and Monday reachident; "Bill" Wear, vice-president; ed 'n point several miles south of "Bill" Hyden, secretary; "Bill" Flack, Miami on the line to Sedalia. An en-

Phirty passengers are burt when pasgrain operator, is found guilty of forg-ing Burlington bills of lading and sen-Louis and Kansas City is devailed near munion of spirits to which he can attain with you. I promise you that, so far as he is concerned, you shall find able journey. At eleven the lances of me neither exigent lover nor jealous | Prince Ivan's Cossacks were seen top-

flee but cannot. "He shall die-this day shall be his

.He drew the dagger from his belt. But in the center of the hall the growling answer. "We be free men of Courtland. You will find us no Musknow how. Upon each flank let the lash be laid—and—well, the Princess from the Muscovite camp. The folk Margaret is welcome to her liege lord's are getting as far off as they can from oul. I warrant she warnot desire his body any more." At this Margaret tottered, her knees giving way beneath her, so that her guards stood nearer to catch her if

"Louis-my brother," she cried, "do cheated me at Castle Kernsherg, you not listen to the mosster. Kill my have made me a laughing-stock husband if you will-pecause I, love throughout the empire. You have him, But do not torture him. By the shamed a maiden of my house, my sis- last words of our mother, by the ter, the daughter of my father. What memory of our father, by your faith church.

each of these. Let limbs and steeds

"The Ukraine cross. in the Most Pitiful Son of God, I charge you-do not this devilry." Prince Ivan adid and give Louis of appeal. "The most noble Princess mistakes," he murmured, suavely, "Death by the Cross of Steeds is no torture. It is the easiest of death. I have witnessed it often. In my country it is tinguished. No common felon dies by an earlier expedition. the Cross of Steeds, but men whose pride it is to die greatly. We will pride it is to die greatly. We will give you an example of his disposi-show you to-morrow on the plain tion. With Peary, one glorious night, Pipe our frocks? Velvet from where she stood behind the across the river that I speak the truth, he paced the deck. Pointing to the wounded, the robbers wounded, the robbers escaped.

It is a noble sight and all Courtland sky, ablaze with splendid planets. shall be there. What say you, Louis? Peary said:

> your princely chair, or-shall we try the Cross of the Ukraine?" "Have it your own way, Prince Ivan!" said Louis, and went out without another word. The Muscovite stood a moment looking from Maurice to Margaret and back again. He their sides. Instantiv the Princess Margaret ran Prince of Muscovy and clasped her hands in supplication. "Prince Ivan," se said, "I pray you let him go. .I premise never to see him more. I will go to a nunnery. I new danger, which naturalists and will look no more upon the face of bird lovers will deplore. Some spe-

for the love of God to spare him, to must see many suns-soon, I trust, in Moscow and by my side."

by and be brave. The time will not be long." Like a child after its bedside prayer she lifted up her face to be kissed. "Good-night, Maurice," she said, simply. "Wait for me; I shall not be long after!"

She laid her brow a moment on his breast. Then she lifted her head and walked slowly and proudly out of the hall. The guard fell in behind her. and Maurice von Lynar was left alone with the Prince of Muscovy.

As the door crosed upon the Princess a sudden devilish grimate of fury distorted the countenance of the Prince Ivan. Hitherto he had been studiously and even caressingly courteous. But now he strode swiftly up to his captive and smote him across the mouth with the back of his gauntleted hand. "That!" he said furiously, "that for the lips which have kissed hers. Tomorrow I will pay the rest of my debt. Yes, I will pay it with usury there-A thin thread of scarlet showed upon the white of Maurice von Lynar's chin and trickled slowly downwards. But he uttered no word. . Only he looked his enemy very straightly in the eyes, and those of the Muscovite dropped before that manful regard.

CHAPTER XXIV.: The Ukraine Cross. Upon the green plain beside the Alla a great multitude was assembled. They had come together to witness a sight never seen in Courtland before, the dread punishment of the Ukraine Cross. It was to be done, they said, upon the body dt the handsome youth. in love-some een whispered married to him. . At ten a great green square of riverside grass was held by the archers of Courtland. The people extended as far back as the shrine of the Virgin where at the city entrance travelers were wont to give thanks for a favorping the city wall. On the high bank of the Alla the people were craning stand set apart for the greater spectators, the Princes Louis and Ivan, fool when the people, mutinous and silent, surged back behind the archers' guard. "Back there-stand back! Way for their excellendies-way!" "Stand back yourselves," came the

Through the lane by which the gate

ommunicated with the tapestried ou may eat a great man's meat and mong the crowd, grew well-nigh fran- London: The Russian government, "See yonder! What are they doing? Spoff, has collapsed. The bureaucracy Ukraine Cross of Steeds? I Tell us, long man! Of what use is numbers of its rank and file are joinhave here four horses, all wild from your great fathom of pump-water? ing in the demand for constitutional nentor's taunt. Her arms were about the steppes. This squire of dames, | Can you do nothing for your meat but | government. The ministers, with two agined. anky, overgrown lad with a keen eye, One of the principal offers that Emperor William made to Emperor Nich. | today. tary force at his disposal to uphold his autocratic authority in case of a seribus revolt. A report reaches Lonat each brute's head. How they don from one Russian source to the moment. Ah, they are tethering them | sort, accept Emperor William's offer, to the four great posts of stone in the and that his dispatches describe the middle of the green square. Between, assembling of a German army of 160, there is a table-no, a wooden square | 000 on the Russian frontier. There threatens, therefore, to be created a

> Dispatches from Posen say it is re ported that German proops are in readiness to quell disturbances in Poland at any moment.

Many believe that the imperial family has fled after the czar invested there all night. New Government Proclaimed. Moscow: At a meeting of delegates from the different political parties it was decided to unite in the establishment of a government and act independently of the imperial authority.

Seven Desperadoes Wreck Safe and Prosecuting Attorney Cockrell and early Puesday morning blew open the tion for a continuance of the cases of safe in the Bank of Ridgeville, the State against W. C. Hyatt wrecked the building, stole $6,000, and charged with attempting to bribe the after a running baitle with a posse of jury in the trial of Paul and Hiram citizens, in which the cashier of the Hyatt for the murder of Herbert Mar bank and two of the robbers were tin at Columbus last Christmas day, Before going to the bank the bur- Ewing Cockrell Thursday, overpowered and gagged him.

thers who were aroused by the shock | in the case against Hyatt. of the four explosions that were required to force open the doors of the Manila: Capt. Frank R. McCov and detachment of picked fighters from the 32d infantry, and the 4th cavalry have killed Datto Ali, leader of the Moro insurgents in Mindanao, and low," said the Prince. "So fair a face even thought to be on the verge of ex- eleven of his followers, and captured two of Ali's principal wives, fortythree of his benchmen and seven troops was two men killed and one mysterious disease that has attacked the mules at Luke Fidler colliery, and was no one injured by the collapse which seems likely to spread to the ment the death sentence of Mrs. Catherine Danz, the Philadelphia woman who is alleged to have poisoned her icy pavement they both slipped, and husband, with powders procured from came to the sidewalk facing each George P. Hossey, a "voodoo" doctor, who is under sentence of death for a similar offense. .

In a semi-centennial celebration at Nahant, Mass., Judge J. T. Wilson, Running.

Special Reaches Omaha—No More Fast Cut Telephone Wires, Preventing Town Calling Help. Omaha: The special train having on board E. H. Harriman and party speech, because when I was a small arrived here from the West at 9:26 a. day morning by three men who cut the > Wealthy Man Refuses Food. Los Angeles, Cal : Walter Fitzpatrick formerly of Philadelphia, has fasted thirty-five days and yet refuses t nourishment. His family fears that President of the defunct Enterprise attempt will be made to force food what the shortage of the Enterpris down his throat. He is so weak that would amount to, said: he can not turn over in bed. He came Hopkinsville, Ky.; Charles Burns, colored, shot, and killed his wife at Pembroke last evening. He found her in company with a man named Jones, of persons, who lined the shores of of whom he was jealous, and, opening the North River Sunday afternoon,

Canal will be completed by 1915. | with a ferry boat.

St. Petersburg Cut Off. St. Petersburg: The last link of the railroads binding the capital with the outer world was broken ate at night when the Finland Railroad suspended service between St. Petersourg and the Finnish border. Telegraphic communication is still open, but there is a possibility that the cable operators may be compelled to join a general strike of telegraphers Export Trade Stopped.

beyond their control,

teen giris.

Odessa: The export trade of Odes sa is practically stopped, as it has een impossible to load steamers since traffic on the river lines connecting the railways with the harbor has been suspended. Twelve British steamers are about sail empty, their charters having een broken. The board of trade has released the in consequence of the situation being Troops Wound Seventeen Girls. Odessa; The revolution has com menced. This declaration was made at a crowded meeting at the university was a collision between the gamnasia

LICENSE REVOKING CASE.

Jefferson City, Mo.: The Supreme Court in banc has now under consideration the question as to whether the Excise Commissioner of St. Louis may at his pleasure revoke the li-This point is involved in the case by Attorney General Hadley for the State and former Attorney General E. C. Crow for the derendant, Seebold Seebolti is charged with violating the Sunday closing law, and upon said that they will attempt to raise that a license cannot be revoked except upon trial and conviction in a Sergeant McFarland Leaves Galveston court of justice. The decision will be a test case as ter some time next month.

____

vestigated. County Circuit Court was devoted to in Iron County, hearing evidence in reference to the Serven, who was formerly a resident application of William Spaugh, Arthur of St. Louis, shot and killed Charles Spaugh, and their mother, Mary E. Donnetti, also an Italian, at Fourteenth Sheriff John W. Polk in this city on with first-degree murder. When the here this week endeavoring to assist Farmington. He has only been there a the Grand Jury in their effort to as- few months when he escaped. certain who composed the members of the mob that assaulted the Spaugh yet been made public... dresses, at Institute.

largely attended. The first lecture was made by Mr. P. wages daily and bring them to the hos-E. Cabtree of Hannon Mo., whose pital for the support of his wife and subjects were, "How to Improve the baby, if they live.

Yield of Corn" and "The Improve ment of Our Live Stock."

Production," and "Care and Management of Poultry." J. M. Smith, a prominent farmer, acted as chairman of the meeting. Elope to Elude Parents. parental objection, Misses Mabel Poland, was the mother of ten of his Bagsby and Ola Bradley stole from children. Soon after landing in Amertheir homes last night and met their ica he married his second wife, who sweethearts, Messrs. James Carroll has given birth to thirteen children. and D. J. Morrison. They went to The oldest child is 36 and the youngest Moberly, where they were married. is 3 years old. All the contracting parties are prom-youthfulness of the brides. No Union Station in Mexico. Mexico, Mo.: The plan for a Union and the Chicago & Alton on the north. Work on both stations, which will be modern, has been begun.

Carthage, Mo .: The little daughter mother attempted to start the fire miles of a stove explosion. The child's found Sunday morning about four the front of the stove and the flames not been found, enveloped the form of the child, who stood there. She will recover.

Southwest to be operated from St.

Many "Bills" in "Bill" Club. Excelsior Springs, Mo .: The "Bill" treasurer. Executive Committee— thusiastic meeting was held here Fri-"Bill" Thompson, "Bill" Craven, day night and the belief was expressed "Bill" Templeton.

W. H. Harroun, St. Joseph (Mo.)

HADLEY FILES MANDAMUS.

spectors

evidence satisfactory to himself. Ex-cise Commissioner Mulvihill revoked the question of the constitutionality of the law.

to the nowers of the Excise Commis- with Bill Dooley escaped from the asystoner of St. Louis. The Supreme lum for the insane at Farmington, Mo., Court is expected to decide the mat- about two months ago, and who was SPAUGHS ASK CHANGE OF VENUE er Bremen, off the coast of Galveston, Attack on Jail by Mob Is Being In- Galveston, Tex.: Sunday morning in Ironton, Mo .: The greater portion ley, who escaped from the asylum with

Assistant Attorney General N. T. tered a plea of insanity, and the pris-Gentry of Jefferson City has been oner was placed in the institution at Kansas City, Mo.: Because, she says, she was almost starving and her hus-The result of their inquiry has not band was spending his week's wages for beer, Mrs. Sidney Sansom, with a 9-months-old baby by her side, poured FARMERS AT BROOKFIELD, MO? kerosene over her clothing Sunday afternoon and tried to end her life by Several State Speakers Deliver Ad- setting herself on fire, J. A. Neill, who lives in the same building, carried a

Kansas City, Mo .: Louis Kemp, 56 Lewelling of Bever City Neb., his years old, of 1515 Genesee street, twice children, sixteen of whom are still living. Kemp was born in Poland and was a father when 17 years old. At that time he lived in Poland. Then he migrated to London, and after a few years came to America. He has years. Kemp's first wife, who died in inent socially, and the objections to dent McCall is deeply in debt.

doned by the managements of the Monday for killing his wife. Crane, Chicago & Alton and the Wabash who had been separated from his wife. went to her home in this city and shot railroads. Preparations are being and killed her because she refused to made by each road for the erection of give him money. She was wealthy and his who died here suddenly about four Chain of vaudeville houses in months ago, has been exhumed and the stomach sent to St. Louis for examina-> by several speakers that the railway is now assured.

tenced to five years' imprisonment. Fort Scott, Kan.

Spaugh, for a change of venue from and Morgan streets, about two years Iron County on the charge of killing ago. He was arrested and charged brothes in the jail here on the night

The other speaker was Mr. C. M. subjects being "Economical Pork married, is the father of twenty-three

Convicted of Wife Murder. Kansas City: John M: Crane was convicted of murder in the first degree Station for this city has been aban- by a Jury in the criminal court here